2010 JCC Maccabi Games and ArtsFest Scholarship Application Process

The Boulder JCC is fortunate to be able to offer scholarship funds to Boulder area students who register for the Denver JCC 2010 Maccabi Games and/or JCC ArtsFest in San Rafael, California. Participants are required to contribute a minimum of 50% of the total registration cost. The scholarship application deadline is March 15, 2010. Award decisions will be made March 19, 2010.

There are registration discounts available for the Denver JCC Maccabi Games. Details are included on the Denver JCC Maccabi Games registration form and on their website:

<http://www.jccdenver.org/maccabi/>

Additional scholarship funds for ArtsFest are available through JCCA (up to $150). These requests must be submitted by the Boulder JCC staff on behalf of participants. To be eligible for JCCA scholarship you must submit the Boulder JCC scholarship application no later than March 12, 2010.

Boulder JCC Scholarship applications will only be considered if all the paperwork is received, including the student essay, by the deadlines indicated above. In addition, all applicants must register for the Maccabi program (including a deposit of $100). Scholarship requests will be kept strictly confidential. Award decisions will be made on March 19, 2010. You will be contacted by the Boulder JCC as to the award you will receive via email. Scholarship funds will be provided directly to the Denver JCC for Maccabi Games and Osher Marin JCC for ArtsFest.

For more information contact Sara Goldberg, Teen Program Director at 303-921-6952 or email sara@boulderjcc.org Mail scholarship requests to: Sara Goldberg, Boulder JCC 3800 Kalmia Ave. Boulder 80301. Scholarships are made possible by 18 Pomegranates.
