BLESSINGS AND PRAYERS: A TWO PART LESSON PLAN

Submitted by: TALIA RUBIN

Subject Area: Jewish Living and Identity

Target Age Group: 2nd-3rd Grade

Lesson Objective: This lesson is meant introduce the concepts of Blessings and Prayers to young students. They need to know very little about the concepts to be able to participate successfully in this lesson. It’s both hands on, and verbal, so that it appeals to different learning styles.

LESSON 1: Blessings and Prayers Part 1

Discussion on the Background Prayers:

- What are some blessings that you’re familiar with? That you recite at school or home? Bread, Wine, Candles, etc.
- There are many blessings in Jewish tradition to help us remember the goodness of God and to practice our gratitude before Him. Some of these are spontaneously uttered praises to God for evidence of His daily care; some of these are special words said on special occasions.
- Hand out Blessings compilation

ACTIVITY: Have students cut out blessings, and paste onto construction paper. Ask them to draw what they think each of these special blessings mean to them. This will start the beginning of out “B’racha Book”

- When you see a rainbow:

ברוך אתהجיהאלוהיםממלכתעולם

blessed be he who is King of the universe

והיה לעם汝孤独

and for our people

אשריקם

who hasset them free

והיה לעם נאם

and for our people

있는ם

who has brought them forth

והיה לברית

and for the covenant

עשת

who keeps

והיה לש_OBJECT

and for the One who remembers

Seeing a place where a personal miracle occurred or when returning to a place where you escaped danger:

ברוך שם רחום אלהים מלך העולם

the universe, King of our God, LORD are You, Blessed

When you hear thunder:

ברוך שם רחום אלהים מלך העולם

the universe, King of our God, LORD are You, Blessed

When you want to praise God for the works of His creation (Ex- seeing lightning, a shooting star, or a comet, or when first seeing a mountain, a river, an ocean or other natural wonder):

LESSON 2: Blessings and Prayers Part 2

Discussion on Blessings and Prayers:
Review blessings for Shabbat (Bread, Wine, Candles, etc.)
Do you know any prayers that we say on a daily basis?
Hand out Shabbat Blessings and Daily Blessings

Jewish tradition requires that we personally bless the LORD for each detail of our daily experience. Such a requirement -- if not practiced legalistically -- surely points to a deep inward appreciation for the good things God personally provides for us throughout each day.

ACTIVITY: Continue “B’racha Book”

- The blessing upon arising, expresses gratitude to God for the gift of a new day of life:

  מברכה אוף לניתן, פלך די ריכוד.
  והברכה אחוג פלך, טעם ליום, יום חדש.

  Your faithfulness is great (is) in compassion my soul in me for you returned.

- The Shema, one of the ventral prayers in the Jewish prayerbook, many cover their eyes with their right hand while saying it (this helps to stay focused), and some recite the Shema twice daily (morning and evening)

  שמע ישראל, יהוה our God, the Lord is one.

- Bedtime Blessing, When going to bed for the day, it is good to give thanks to the LORD who sustained you and gave you another day of life
Upon Bathing/Hand washing, some of the Jewish sages have said that, immediately after arising, you should wash your, the morning ritual of washing oneself is sanctified by the netilat yadayim

SUPPLIES for Both Lessons:
- Glue
- Scissors
- Constructions Paper
- Copies of the blessings handout for each student
- Workbook: “Shalom Alef Bet- A Pre-Primer for Shalom Uvrachah” by Pearl Tarnor
- Quiz Bowl Review Game:
  - Directions: Take a large peace of paper or foam core and make 9 pockets in it (laid out in a similar fashion to “Tick-tack-toe”) Place a piece of one of the two sides of Velcro on each pocket. This board will be reused every time the review game is played. Next, for each class, make nine note cards pertaining to the material taught that day, and place them face-down in the pockets. Cut out 4 X’s and 4 O’s, then place the remaining side of the Velcro on the backside of each to secure to the pieces on the game board as they are won (these pieces will also be reused during each game). The class should be divided into 2 teams, and the first team to get tick-tack-toe with the correct answers wins!
